

December 2011

Vol. 12

Dear Friends and Neighbors,

I hope this letter finds all of you well, especially as you start to prepare for the Winter holidays ahead of us. It's nice to have a chance to relax after the hyper-partisan stresses of this year, and I, for one, am glad to soon have the chance to enjoy these times with friends and family. The end of one year and the start of the next is the perfect time to slow down, while examining where you've been in life and where you want to go and that is an opportunity should be definitely be taken advantage of before we move into 2012, which promises great challenges ahead.

Yet, the celebrations and gatherings that bring people together in December are the most important part of this month. With that in mind, I would like to invite everyone to my holiday party this December 11th, from 4:30 to 7:30 PM at my home, which is located at 6320 Glenbrook Drive in Tucker. Please come and bring your friends and family as we put aside politics for fellowship to mark Christmastime in my home. There will be plenty of food and drink, though you are welcome to bring food to share as well. We are also accepting unwrapped toys on behalf of Toys for Tots, if you would like to bring something extra for the children of those who have not been able to have the luckiest of years in 2011.

In a months time, we will find ourselves on the other side of the holidays, waking up from counting down the seconds to midnight on December 31st, 2011 and facing the 2012 session of the Georgia General Assembly, as well as a Presidential campaign that promises to be just as consequential as 2008's. It will be massive. It will be partisan. It will be nasty. I hope that everyone will be able to retain their sense of fellowship and cheer not just through the Christmas season, but into the presidential primary season and beyond.
